

What are you thankful or grateful for from this past week?

Read Psalm 77:1-20. (Try to read it at least twice.)

What stands out to you from these verses?

What are you stressed or worried about in the future?

What do these verses teach us about God and Jesus?

What was one thing you learned from the sermon this week?

What do these verses teach us about ourselves and other people?

What is one act of kindness you can show to someone this week?

How will you respond to what you have learned from the sermon or these verses that you can put into practice this week?

1

Share about a time from your life when you felt God's presence or when you encountered His power and majesty. Where were you? What did you experience?

What are some places or experiences where you see the "fingerprints of God" upon His creation? Where do you see God most clearly in this world?

2

In Psalm 77:16-19, we learn that God walks through the storms of creation. Why do we need God's guidance to walk through the storms of life?

Why should we go to the Lord when our lives become chaotic and messy?

3

What does your personal search for God look like? How do you pursue Him?

Why do we need to consistently look for God throughout our lives? How can we miss the work of God in this world if we're not searching for it?

What can we discover about ourselves as we explore the work of God in His creation? How can we grow through our pursuit of God?
