FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Shepherd Church Offers Weekend Services Online Due to COVID-19

PORTER RANCH, Calif., March 13, 2020 – At the recommendation of health and city officials concerning COVID-19, Shepherd Church announced it would not be holding on-site gatherings at its three locations in Porter Ranch, Woodland Hills, or Agua Dulce, until further notice. Updates can be found on their website by visiting shepherdchurch.com/health.

Shepherd Church Live

Shepherd Church, led by Senior Pastor Dudley Rutherford, invites everyone to watch their weekend worship services online. Viewers can watch Shepherd Church live each Saturday, starting at 6:00 p.m. and Sunday, 9 a.m., and 11 a.m. PT at live.shepherdchurch.com.

“Shepherd Church takes the health and welfare of our attendees very seriously. We have continued to do our best to digest and process all the information that we have been able to gather about COVID-19 while listening to community health experts. Moving forward our decisions will continue to be guided by the County of Los Angeles Public Health and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, said Executive Director Tim Winters. “We will continue to lead out of a posture of faith and assurance, rather than fear and panic while finding our hope, strength, peace, and unity in Jesus Christ, our Lord.”

Shepherd’s office is located at 19700 Rinaldi Street, Porter Ranch, CA 91326 and will be open during regular business hours from 8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. (Monday – Friday).
