

DEEP WATER

DEEP WATER

LESSON THREE

Icebreaker

Share a simple “life hack” with the group (use a straw to remove the stem of a strawberry, use your shoe as a cupholder, etc.).

Discussion Prompts

1. Read 2 Kings 5:1-4. Why was it probably difficult and unique for the young slave girl to tell Naaman’s wife about Elisha?

DEEP WATER

LESSON THREE

2. According to the text and what Mandie said in the video, why did the King of Israel tear his clothes in 2 Kings 5:7?

3. Often when we ask God for something, we expect one thing and He gives us what we least expect. How do you see this principle at play both in 2 Kings 5:8-14 and/or in your own life?

DEEP WATER

LESSON THREE

4. If you were Naaman, what would you be thinking as you approached the Jordan River and dunked yourself?

5. What indications do we find in 2 Kings 5:15-18 that Naaman was saved?

DEEP WATER

LESSON THREE

6. When sharing about her daughter, Mandie said, "Faith isn't believing God can, it's knowing that He will." Where in your life do you need to demonstrate such faith?

Group Prayer

Let the group know how you could share Jesus with your one person in a way they understand.

Personal Reflection & Deeper Study for This Week

- Memorize 2 Kings 5:15
- Read 2 Kings 5:1-19, list the prideful traits that Naaman displays throughout the passage, reflect on how you are like Naaman, and ask the Spirit to refine those areas of your life.
- List all of the ways you see humility and servanthood displayed in 2 Kings 5:1-19.
